

ESPEN DIPLOMA IN CLINICAL NUTRITION AND METABOLISM

The ESPEN Diploma provides recognition of skills and competences in Clinical Nutrition to the owner of the Diploma and it has all the prestige of ESPEN.

Candidates to the ESPEN Diploma need to collect the number of required CME credits and pass the final exam.

Organization of the Exam:

The exam is organized annually at ESPEN Congress and on designated locations under approval by LLL Board.

The next Final Examination for the ESPEN EUROPEAN DIPLOMA IN CLINICAL NUTRITION AND METABOLISM is scheduled on 3th September, 13.00-17.00, 2018, in Madrid, Spain, during the 40th Congress of ESPEN.

The deadline for application for final exam is two months before the scheduled final exam. After this time no application will be accepted.

Mandatory pre-requisites for taking the final exam:

120 CME credits are necessary to sit for the final exam.

A minimum of 56 credits (14 live courses) from live courses and 64 credits from online courses are requested. The earned credits are verified with the certificates issued for live courses and from individual online profile.

The final exam, if passed, awards the additional 30 credits.

There are mandatory topics for the credits earned at live courses:

Topic 3, Topic 8, Topic 9, Topic 17, Topic 18

Mandatory online courses:

Topic 1, Topic 6, Topic 20 and Topic 23.

Note: If more than 16 topics have been covered, the student has the right to select 16 topics on which he/she would prefer being tested for the final exam. This information should be sent with the application.

We kindly remind you to check your credits online on LLL Web Portal (<http://lllnutrition.com/>)

If you are unsure that your credits have been lost, please send us the documents related to the specific topic undertaken with the application.

Application:

If an applicant fulfils the prerequisites, he/she has to write an intent letter to the LLL co-director Regina Komsa-Penkova, rkomsa@gmail.com informing about the intention to sit for the exam and providing a summary of the accumulated credits.

Credits earned by successful completion of the live courses will be certified by the certificates issued at the end of the live courses. Credits earned by online activity will be verified by checking applicant's individual online account.

Thereafter, the LLL Board will respond to the applicants' request after checking from the applicant personal profile on the web portal, and confirm or deny the applicants' request.

The deadline for application is the 5th July 2018. After this time no application will be accepted.

The fee for final exam is 100 Euro. The payment should be made to the organizers of the event, where the final exam takes place, before sitting the exam.

Format of the Exam:

Each applicant authorized to sit for the exam will be given an individual test containing 100 multiple choice questions, according to the courses he/she has taken and are registered in his/her individual credits profile at LLL WEB-Portal. The multiple-choice questions have only one right answer from four available.

The examinee must have a minimum of 80% of the correct answers.

The duration of exam is 3 hours, without any break.

Note: Any form of electronic device (e.g. cellular phones, tablets, etc.) are prohibited inside the exam hall.

The ESPEN Diploma in Clinical Nutrition and Metabolism is awarded after successful accumulation of a total of 150 credits.

A European Diploma Supplement, mentioning the activities of the student on the web-portal during the entire LLL program, is given together with Diploma.

Join the enthusiastic group of the ESPEN EU Diploma holders in Clinical Nutrition and Metabolism. Become a proud holder of the ESPEN Diploma!

The ESPEN Diploma recognizes the knowledge and competences in Clinical Nutrition of the owner of the Diploma and it has all the prestige of ESPEN. This Diploma can be considered as an endorsement by ESPEN, but it is not an equivalent of a formal degree recognized by a Ministry of Education of any country. For professional career development the Diploma has the weight that employers want to give it.
